

As a radio amateur I am strongly opposed to the implementation of Broadband Over Power Lines. We can only expect severe interference to shortwave communication.